

Hope Channel is license-fee free service about a positive and healthy lifestyle for the whole person! Our programs are high quality and exclusive. More than 90% are produced by us and available nowhere else.

Christian lifestyle television like you have never seen before!

Health and Well-Being

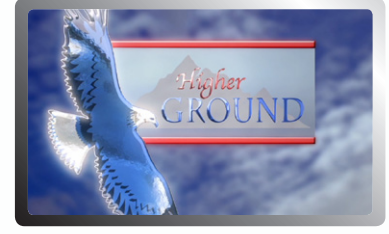

In a society where nearly 40% of the population is obese, health has never been more important. Our positive message of health is simple, practical, and proven to get results. Our exclusively-affiliated 57 hospitals and research institutions, including Loma Linda Medical Center* and Florida Hospital, are among the most respected in the world. Additionally, Hope Channel has a doctor on staff as well as medically-trained producers for our health programs.

*The health research from this hospital made the local community of Loma Linda, California home to the healthiest and longest-living people on earth according to the New York Times best seller, The Blue Zones: Lessons for Living Longer from People Who Live the Longest (Dan Buettner, National Geographic Society, 2008).  International leader in cardiology, diabetes, orthopedics, and neuroscience (Becker's Hospital Review, 2013).

Progressive and Diverse Information

HOPE CHANNEL delivers real answers to real life with information that just isn't available anywhere else. As a worldwide organization, HOPE CHANNEL has access to a large and highly diverse group of hosts and producers who bring a unique and fresh perspective to our programming. Our positively-minded documentaries, news, and education cover the gamut of human experience. HOPE CHANNEL draws on years of thought leadership and diversity with 15 exclusively-affiliated universities that assist HOPE CHANNEL in creating programs that help viewers think and learn in new ways. Four of our universities rank in the top ten of the most diverse colleges in America according to "US News and World Report." The result is an unparalleled program mix that is interesting and effective in producing positive life changes in our viewers.

Spiritual Development

In America, 244 million people call themselves Christian. HOPE CHANNEL programming meets the needs of the spiritually-minded through engaging spiritual presentations and uplifting music. HOPE CHANNEL programming is unique in the Christian television market and not available to other channels. We create our own content – that means it all meets OUR demanding quality and OUR strict content standards. HOPE CHANNEL's spiritual programming is reasonable and features some of the greatest minds in Christian thought. For example the program, "Higher Ground," is produced and hosted by US Senate Chaplain Barry Black who is both the first African-American and the first military officer to hold this historic post.

We create our exclusive content – this means it all meets OUR demanding quality and OUR strict content standards

To me Hope Channel is a purveyor of hope that is so desperately needed in our country today. Hope Channel is seeking to help people to understand that their lives can be transformed – that caterpillars can become butterflies.

Admiral Barry Black, United States Senate Chaplain, Washington DC
